$2000 Spring Web Design Contest

Released on: February 14, 2008, 1:14 pm

Press Release Author: WebHostingGeeks

Industry: Internet & Online

Press Release Summary: WebHostingGeeks, in partnership with OpenWebDesign, is accepting new spring-inspired web designs as part of their $2000 design contest.

Press Release Body: WebHostingGeeks is working with OpenWebDesign to sponsor a spring design contest. Designers are invited by the sponsoring companies to submit unique website designs before April 1 to be a part of its design contest.

The submitted design selected as first place in the contest will be awarded $1000. Second place will win $600, and the third place design receives $400. All designs must be submitted by April 1, 2008 to be considered for prizes.

The requirements set forth for designers for this contest include the following: the website design must be considered Web 2.0 and the site's theme must have a definite tie to the spring season.

Website designs may be submitted to the OpenWebDesign now through April 1, 2008. Contest submissions qualified for potential prizes will not be accepted after April 1, and winners will be announced on April 8, 2008.

"We are excited to be working with OpenWebDesign.org on this spring contest," says Dmitry Nekrasov, Business Development Manager of WebHostingGeeks.com, "OWD has a great history of successful contests, and we look forward to being part of this one."
